

STS have now been providing public first aid courses for over 30 years; from just a few a year, we now have over 100 public courses in London. The public (open) courses are available to any industry or any size. Whilst we can't tailor it to every single delegate on the course; we will certainly do our best to use examples of accidents and injuries that are commonplace in those workplaces.

We have three venues; Enfield, Haringey and in the City of London within the heart of the Financial district. The public courses are ideal for companies of all shapes and sizes. From sole traders and members of the public, to the largest corporate companies; the public courses are suitable for all.

Each of the venues have been carefully selected and are all ideal for learning. There is ample parking at the Enfield and Haringey venues, whilst the venue in the City is within walking distance to 14 different train stations. Tea, coffee and refreshments are all provided.

There is no maximum number of students you can book on our public courses and they are running all through the year (apart from August to give us a few weeks to catch a breath!).
